

Give Me The Signal Activity

Take 5 minutes to experiment with the Semaphore flags. Once everyone feels they understand the basic signals, elect 1 person to come up with a word and sign it to the other team members. The team members will need to determine what the word is that is being signed, without talking to the person signing. Take turns giving the signals, and make sure everyone is contributing to the process of determining the word being signed.